Amer. Numis. Soc.
N. Y. City,

Gentlemen,

I am considering the sale of my collection of coins, mostly American, some 2000 or 3000 pieces. Can you give me any information as to the reliability and trustworthyness to handle such a sale, of Thos. L. Elder of #8 W. 37th St. New York, and of S. H. Chapman of Philadelphia. Any information you can give me will be treated as confidential and greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours
E B Underwood.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 30th ult. reached us on October 4th. Both Mr. Elder and Mr. Chapman are members of our Society and I can recall no occasion on which the reliability or trustworthiness of either of them has been called into question. Both are experienced in preparing collections for sale at auction. We should not like to compare one with the other because, as has been said above, both are members of this Society. I feel confident that you would receive satisfactory treatment from either of them. If this gives you the information you desire, I shall be very happy.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
